MONTPELIER

The city attorney of Montpelier will appear before the House committee of the whole this evening relative to the objections to House bills 92 and S. 72 and S. 73, in which all municipalities are interested if they have a trolley company operating on their streets.

The DeLue company, which has commenced work in the shirt factory, finds that the women, who are learning, are uncertain. They seem to want to work, but when they tackle the work it appears more difficult than it first appeared. However, 13 women have been working and this is about all that can be taught the work at a time.

The Pythian Sisters gave a dance in their hall Wednesday evening, attended by a large crowd.

T. H. Cave, jr., of Barre has been appointed administrator of the estate of Orestes Bobba, late of that city. B. E. Bailey of Montpelier has settled his final accounts as guardian of Hattie D. Don A. and Pansy M. Trow, minors, who lived in Montpelier. Mr. Bailey has also settled his account as administrator of the estate of Freeman LaCroix, late of Montpelier. F. E. Perrin of Barre has been appointed administrator of the estate of Charles E. Hersey, late of that city, while Bessie Hersey has been appointed a guardian of Edmund and Ellen Hersey.

E. L. Cowles of San Francisco, Cal., was the guest of H. L. Hindley Tuesday. Mr. Cowles was formerly city editor on the Rutland Herald, and has more recently been connected with the San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Demerit of Duxbury were local visitors yesterday.

Herbert Smith of Waitsfield was in the city yesterday.

James Dewey of Quebec has been visiting M. W. Dewey, his brother.

Letters recently received from Dr. Julius Dewey state that he is at Brest, France, in the medical corps service.

RED + NOTES

The committee in charge of sewing at the Red Cross rooms wish to thank all the ladies who have so willingly helped with the work. The 400 pinafors received the 15th of February have been finished and were shipped to Boston yesterday. Is it not pleasing to know that the ladies of Barre branch and its auxiliaries can always be depended on when the need comes?

Since Jan. 1 we have made and shipped to Boston 160 girls' dresses, 180 morning dresses, 80 gingham aprons, 400 pinafors, a total of 820 garments. Are you not pleased to think you have been able to do your part in this work?

We shall have a small amount of work for the month of April and notice will be given as soon as this shipment arrives, and let us hope that the present interest in the work will not be lacking when the call comes.

The rooms will be open Monday and Friday afternoons from 2 until 4:30. All those wishing wool for knitting can get it at that time.

If you haven't made any of the little stockings, come and get a skein and see if it isn't fun, or if you had rather, you may make sweaters, mufflers or shawls. There is yarn for all.

And in the meantime, keep on looking up old clothes to send to the refugees, who are in a large degree dependent on the generosity of the people of the United States.

Largest line of new and second-hand ranges in Barre, Perfection and Kenogas oil stoves, wicks and ovens. Call and get prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.
